Issue 3 Parent/Caregiver Resources

Kayla appears anxious to play the game about the book she read. To learn about why kids might get anxious about reading, see this information from Understood.org:

<https://www.understood.org/en/learning-thinking-differences/child-learning-disabilities/reading-issues/5-reasons-why-kids-get-anxious-about-reading-and-how-to-help>

Kayla is upset that she answered a question incorrectly and thinks she'll never get it. To learn how to respond to a discouraged child, see this information from Reading Rockets:

<https://www.readingerockets.org/content/helping/builders/handout.pdf>

Ms. Palmer supports Kayla when she's answering questions about what she read. To learn how to help your child understand what is read, see this information from Understood.org:

<https://www.understood.org/en/learning-thinking-differences/child-learning-disabilities/reading-issues/7-tips-to-help-kids-understand-what-they-read>

Kayla stuck with answering questions even while feeling uneasy about it. To learn how to build confidence in kids, see this information from PBS Parents:

<https://www.pbs.org/parents/first/12-tips-for-raising-confident-kids>
