

KP- Jade & Rowan

Jade and Rowan are fraternal twins. They got their abilities from their necklaces. Before their mother Vanessa mysteriously died, she gave them necklaces with powers when they were babies. The necklaces don't come off. They don't know anything about their mother or the necklaces - they don't even know how they got the necklaces.

Rowan powers - she can fly and manipulate time by pausing it.
Jade powers - she has telekinesis and can predict the future.

If they hold hands, they can go together to different places in time. However, they can't go back to when their mother died, or any time when their mother was alive. They live with an adopted family.

Their mother was a witch who was part of a secret Wiccan society. At the age of 16, strange things started to happen to the girls. Jade started to move things with her mind when triggered by strong emotions. She began to have premonitions of the future. One day she decided to jump off a building, and figured out that she was able to fly. Time was frozen and the cars stopped beneath her. She figured out she was able to pause time.

Their aunt Gwen steps in and explains their powers and that their mother was part of this secret society, but her death was ruled a mystery - not even Gwen knows what happened. Because of the rules of the secret society, Gwen couldn't explain this to the girls until they were 16 and figured out their powers. Gwen moves them into her house and takes them under her wing. The girls start to question the organization and its secrets.

Jade is very interested in figuring out what happened to her and Rowan's mother, Vanessa. Rowan isn't interested in knowing, and wants to leave it alone. One night Rowan and Jade were attacked by a mysterious stranger - they wonder if this stranger was part of the secret Wiccan organization. Gwen and Jade get in a fight after Gwen discovers Jade snooping around in her room. Jade finds a letter from her mother addressed to Gwen - the letter tells Gwen to meet Vanessa at a secret location in the woods. This letter was dated the day of Vanessa's death. Gwen yells at Jade and tells her to leave, refusing to explain the contents of the letter. Jade runs away. Rowan finds Jade and confronts her - Jade is trying to convince Rowan that the organization and their aunt Gwen are responsible for their mother's death, and Rowan believes the culprit is the mysterious stranger who attacked them.

Rowan and Jade fight it out all night. Then, the mysterious stranger shows up in the woods. At first they don't see the stranger - they just hear rustling leaves and see a hooded figure. Their aunt reveals herself as the mysterious stranger who attacked them, and reveals that SHE is the one who killed their mother on that fateful night. Gwen is able to disable their necklaces, but the girls have a special button that summons the secret organization to protect them. Suddenly, when they press it, their mother Vanessa appears! She's not dead - she was wounded by the attack from Gwen, and went into hiding so her daughters would be safe. The organization was protecting the entire family. Together, the girls and their mom defeat Gwen, and she is taken by the organization. The girls are reunited with their mom and they live together from then on.
